

Floating Ghosts – coming to Tavares this Fall...

The newest attraction in Florida is in Downtown Tavares!

Floating Ghosts Séance Tour of Downtown Tavares will begin this Fall, 2011. These theatrical tours will perform on Saturday nights after sundown, and on other nights per special request.

Special FX are included with these historical, hysterical tales of the ghosts that haunt the alleyways and float on the waterways surrounding the isthmus city of Tavares.

These 1+ hour theatrical tours will begin at the Railway Station at Wooton Park (on Main St.) Walking, minor stair climbing & ghost appearances are involved. Advance reservations are recommended; stragglers will be able to join a tour if space permits. This tour is not suitable for young children or scaredy-cats. Well-behaved children and pets in strollers will be allowed to join the tour at no charge. Ill-behaved children and pets will need to pay double.

Floating Ghosts Séance Tour of Downtown Tavares is produced by locally-owned theatrical company, Dreamland Productions. Owners, Connie and Jeff Gay, are well known as the creators of the award-winning MurderWatch® Mystery Theatre and locally known as the hosts of TableTop® Team Trivia and Treasure Chest Quest® Game Shows. Their “alter-egos” of Ben Franklin and Betsy Ross are also well known to Lake County residents – their historical presentations have performed at many communities and fundraisers for years. Dreamland Productions also has musicians, singers, DJs, and magicians for your entertainment needs. Call 352-508-5523 for entertainment info.

Connie and Jeff Gay have designed entertainment events for over 20 years for Walt Disney World, Hewlett-Packard, the FBI, The Villages, Leland Management, Price-Waterhouse, Georgia-Pacific, Coca-Cola, Quaker Oats, Hard Rock Café, the Orlando Magic, The Club at Hammock Beach, and hundreds of other corporations and communities. Dreamland Productions is not an agency but rather a production company that creates events designed specifically for each client location. The owners of Dreamland Productions are also licensed Community Association Managers and members of Mystery Writers of America.
