Ghost tour set for Tavares

Updated: Wednesday, 20 Apr 2011, 8:20 PM EDT Published : Wednesday, 20 Apr 2011, 8:20 PM EDT

TAVARES, Fla. (WOFX FOX 35) - Connie Gay is on a mission. She and her husband are gearing up the first walking ghost tour and seance in the City of Tavares.

"For 20 years, we wrote and produced murder mysteries - mostly on Disney properties - and we decided for our next phase of our lives we want to do something with a gimmick but more based on history."

Something Gay says will be unique enough to lure tourists. "It's going to be based on historical facts and historic figures of Tavares and Lake county but it is a theatrical event."

Gay walked us through a quick tour. "Across the way here, used to be Cassidy's Pool Hall and there were some mysterious deaths there we'll explore on our tour," she said.

Next door, in the century old building, she said there are some guests who return regularly. "Namely in the front there in the original parts of the structure things move tables move."

Gay said the city's beautiful back drop, historical stories she's researched and some imagination are a great combination for business and the city.
